

Synoptic Resume

Govind Swaroop Pathak currently holds a Permanent position as ‘Assistant Professor’ in Behavioural Sciences/Organizational Behaviour in the Department of Management Studies, Indian School of Mines, Dhanbad since February, 03. Prior to this, he was working as a Lecturer for a period of 5 years in the same department. He obtained his Bachelors Degree in Arts (B.A.) & Masters Degree in Arts (M.A) from Kanpur University. Govind has presented papers in many national and international conferences in India and abroad.

Scholarships & Academic Awards

- a) Was awarded the ‘Young Researcher Fellowship 2005-2006’ of the V.V.Giri National Labour Institute, Noida and have been designated as ‘Research Fellow’.
- b) Was awarded the ‘Associateship of the Indian Institute of Advanced Study, Rasthrapati Niwas, Shimla’ in the year 2000 tenable for the period ‘2001-2004’
- c) Was awarded an Industrial Finance Corporation of India’s Research Fellowship (I.F.C.I. Research Fellowship 1992) for working on his Ph.D research project.

Govind’s main academic, research and professional interests are in the areas of

- Work Motivation, Self-Efficacy Theory
- Effect of Globalization on Society with special reference to Consumerism
- Effect of ICT on Work and on Society
- Experimental Social Psychology
- Cross-Cultural Psychology
- Psychology of Personality
- Personal Development

Is also interested as a student in all the areas mentioned above & in the areas of

- Research Methodology & Statistics
- Applied Psychology (Consumer Behaviour)
- Marketing Research

Address (for Communication)

Office

Department of Management Studies, Indian School of Mines,
Dhanbad – 826 004.
Telephone (0326) (2206858) p.p.(Office)

Electronic Mail: gspathak @ gmail.com